

ANTI-KLAN CANDIDATES WIN COUNTY G. O. P. NOMINATIONS

Men Endorsed on Marked Ballot are Victorious in Races For Places on Democratic Ticket

RESULTS A BIG SURPRISE

Coolidge Carries County by Almost 11 to 1 and Jackson Wins Plurality of 651

HOLT DEMOCRATIC CHOICE

Vote is Heavier Than in 1922 Primary, But Not as Large as Indicated by First Reports

Candidates for nomination on the republican county ticket, endorsed by the Ku Klux Klan on marked ballots which were distributed throughout the county, were defeated by anti-klan candidates in the primary election Tuesday, and candidates on the democratic county ticket, who had the endorsement of the klan,
were without exception nominated.

The primary result was a great surprise as it was conceded by the anti-klan forces that the republican klan candidates would win.

The result is explained largely by the fact that anti-klan democrats voted the republican ballot, which weakened the opposition to the klan candidates seeking places on the democratic county ticket and resulted in their victory.

Although heavier than in 1922, the vote cast Tuesday was not as much larger than 1922 as was expected.

The total vote cast Tuesday by both republicans and democrats for governor was 6565 and two years ago the total vote cast for United States senator on both tickets was 5590, making the vote this year 955 larger.

The total republican vote for governor this year was 4424 as compared with 3763 cast for the republican candidates for senator in 1922
a difference of 661.

President Coolidge carried the county over Hiram Johnson for the republican nomination for president
by almost eleven to one, receiving 3812 votes to 360 cast for Johnson.
Ed Jackson, acknowledged to be the klan choice for governor on the republican ticket, carried the county
by 651 votes. He received 2000 votes
as against 2424 for his five opponents. Shank was second with 1349.

Olin R. Holt, endorsed by the klan
for governor on the democratic ticket, won a plurality of 112 votes. His nearest opponent was McCulloch,
who was supported by the organization democrats and who received 669
votes.

RICHMOND MAYOR NOMINATED

Richard N. Elliott of Connersville won the republican nomination in the Sixth District congressional race,
registering more than his two opponents combined, and having a plurality of 7,443 votes.

On the democratic side, the race
was won by Lawrence A. Handley, mayor of Richmond, over James Clifton, mayor of Connersville, and the Wayne county nominee pulled through with 39 votes in his favor.

Clifton on the democratic ballot
and Dr. W. R. Phillips of Orange on the republican ticket, were both marked candidates on the ballot distributed by the Ku Klux Klan, and in each instance they ran in second place.

The votes for each candidate by
counties, are as follows:

For Richard N. Elliott, a total of 15,522 votes. Wayne 3,939; Union,
486; Hancock 1,044; Franklin 551;
Henry 3,835; Rush 2,564; Fayette,
1,359.

For William R. Phillips, a total of 8,079 votes. Wayne 1,254; Union

High School Boys Spend Hectic Hour Running Official Business

Between Running Down False
Alarms, Arresting Speeders and Violators of Motor Laws and Sentencing Prisoners to Penal Farm,
They Find Holding Office is Arduous Business. Part of Boys Week
Celebration

By FRANKLIN MULLEN
(City Editor of the Daily Republican
from 9 to 10 a. m. today)

Following the example of many other cities of the country, Rushville was officially managed by boys from the high school between nine and ten o'clock this morning. Almost every elective and appointive public office
of the county and city was occupied by the boys, who will some day in reality be the business men of Rushville.

For the short time they were in office each one learned much of the business carried on daily by the officials and certainly realized that they should more appreciate the fine
education that the citizens of Rushville are giving them.

Mayor Conover was sworn in by
Mr. Thomas, and immediately on entering office held trial for a man who had parked his truck wrong. The victim was released but not until he had received a severe lecture.

The fire department was given a workout when they answered a call to the Rushville Furniture Company.
Since the call was not listed on the directory some trouble was experienced in finding the location of the fire. Finally after a nerve-racking run to the factory, they found that a customary fire was in progress that is, there was no blaze at all. On return to the city hall, the boys were

Chester (Chuck) Taylor, who has been in jail for two months on grand jury indictments charging him with violating the liquor laws appeared this morning in the circuit court, and entered a plea of guilty to 1 charge and was fined $100 and given a six months penal farm sentence.

He admitted the sale of liquor, and Judge Sparks passed the sentence. He is also charged in an indictment with conspiracy, and this case was scheduled for trial tomorrow before a jury and special judge

BOULEVARD BIDS ARE DUE JUNE 3

No Remonstrances Filed Against
Memorial Park Drive and Council
Decides to Advertise

SHORT SESSION IS HELD

Adjourned Meeting Scheduled For
Thursday Night When Postponed
Business Will be Transacted

The city council transacted considerable business at the Tuesday night session, and the meeting adjourned until Thursday night, when the session will be completed and further business transacted.

Bids were opened last night on the proposals for an ash conveyor at the water and light plant, to fit in with the new equipment that is being installed, and several competitive firms offered bids. All of them were taken under consideration, and a decision
will be made within a few weeks.

Last night was the time set for hearing remonstrances on the improvement resolution and annexation
of Memorial park, and no one appeared. The council accordingly will advertise for bids for the construction of the Memorial park boulevard,
and four kinds of material will be specified in the bids. The proposals for the boulevard will be received
and opened on June 3.

No one remonstrated against the

RE-ELECTION OF MILLER FORECAST

Republican County Chairman Will be Chosen at Meeting of Central Committee Saturday

MANY PRECINCT CONTESTS

Klan Issue Figures in Rushville
Township Where There Were Contests in Seven Precincts

The re-election of Glen Miller as republican county chairman, at a meeting of the new county central committee Saturday, was predicted
today following the election of precinct committeemen in the primary Tuesday.

The klan issue figured to some extent where there were contests for precinct committeemen, especially in Rushville township, but a number of committeemen who are regarded as members of the klan have pledged their support to the present county
chairman, and it is not now regarded as likely that any candidate will be brought out against Mr. Miller.

There were no contests for precinct committeemen on the democratic ticket. They also will elect a county chairman Saturday.

The primary law provides that the week following the election of the county chairmen in each county, the county chairmen shall meet by districts and elect district chairmen.

NOMINATION OF JACKSON IS FORECAST

Klan Candidate for Republican Nomination for Governor Expected
to Have Clear Majority

MAY RUN 12,000 TO 15,000

McCulloch Leads Democratic Opponents in Governorship Race But
Majority is Unlikely

JOHNSON IS SNOWED UNDER

President Coolidge Apparently Carries State in Presidential Primary
6 or 7 To One

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 7.—With
2,187 of the 3,406 precincts in the Indiana primary election heard from unofficially at noon today the nomination of Ed Jackson, klan candidate for the Republican nomination
for governor, seemed assured.

It was expected his majority over
the other five candidates in the Republican race would be from 12,000 to 15,000.

In the Democratic race, with 2,207
precincts heard from unofficially, Dr.
Carleton McCulloch was leading Joseph
Cravens his nearest opponent,
by more than two to one.

McCulloch, however, did not have a clear majority over the other democratic candidates necessary to assure the nomination.

Late in the morning, as reports
from the southern part of the state came in, Cravens' edged George Dur-
gan of Lafayette out of second place
by a few hundred votes.

The vote in 2,207 precincts in the democratic race stood:

McCulloch 58,674; Cravens 28,- 233; Durgan, 27,570; Crittenden,
20,336; Holt, 17,033; Batt, 6,404;
Priest, 4,995; Risk, 4,148.

President Coolidge snowed under Hiram Johnson in the Republican presidential primary six or seven to one, 2,033 precincts giving Coolidge
172,376 and Johnson 30,365.

In the Republican race for governor 2,187 precincts give:

Jackson, 114,079; Shank, 46,777;
Toner 34,051; Bush, 14,290; Davis
5,245; Dulberger 1,890.

While early returns this morning
indicated Mayor Shank and Jackson were running a close race in the former's home county, later returns
placed Jackson in the lead.

Jackson's lead was further increased as results from outlying districts over the state came in.

Reports were slow in being tabu-

HILL, M'DANIEL SENATE NOMINEES

Carthage Man is Nominated on Republican Ticket and Shelbyville
Man by Democrats

HILL'S PLURALITY IS 469

Rowland Hill of Carthage was nominated on the republican ticket for joint senator from Rush-Fayette-and Shelby counties, and on the democratic ballot, Erastus McDaniel
of Shelbyville polled the most votes
over two opponents.

Hill's plurality in the total is 469
votes, while McDaniel came out 93
ahead. Hill polled a total of 3,547
votes, divided as follows: Rush county 2,467, Fayette 461 and Shelby 619.

Clyde W. Spurlin of Shelby county ran second to Hill, by polling a total
of 3,078 votes, divided as follows:
Rush county 472; Fayette 752 and Shelby 1,854. John F. Clifford of Connersville came third, and polled a total of 3,033 votes, divided as follows: Rush county 1010; Fayette 1393 and Shelby 630.

In the democratic primary, Mc-Daniel polled a total of 3,218 votes,
divided as follows: Rush county 551,
Fayette 371, and Shelby 2,296. James
I. Shockey of Connersville ranked

BURCHNELL SPENT LONG TIME IN A HOSPITAL

Following Attack of Malaria But Did Not Regain Lost Strength Until he Tried Tanlac.

"Since taking Tanlac I can speed up all day at the factory without even making a dent in my energy and then go home at quitting time happy and smiling," is the striking statement of James O. Burchnell, 714 Broadway, Muncie, Ind., a valued employee of a large steel and wire manufacturing company here.

"Following a three month's siege of malaria last fall that pulled my weight down from 142 lbs. to 96 lbs. and laid me up in a hospital 52 days,

I found Tanlac just the thing I needed to build me up.

"Tanalac brought back my appetite set my stomach in order, stopped my aches and pains, restored my lost weight and strength and left me feeling as vigorous and energetic as if nothing had ever been the matter with me. And as for my health now, I never had better. I eat fine, sleep fine and feel the same way."

Tanalac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40-million bottles sold.

Tanalac Vegetable Pills, for constipation made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC.

FRIGHTENED BY BULLDOG

Elizabeth Hackleman Falls off Stone Wall and Breaks Arm

Miss Elizabeth Hackleman is recovering from injuries she sustained Monday afternoon, when she fell to the sidewalk from the stone wall in front of Albert Stevens home in West Fourth street. She received a broken arm, just below the elbow, and sprained her right ankle as a result of the accident.

Just as Miss Hackleman was going by the Stevens residence, a large bull dog ran towards her, and in her fright she ran into the yard and jumped to the sidewalk from the stone wall surrounding the yard. In jumping to the walk she fell, causing the injuries.

Greatest Drama at Princess

"Contract" was carefully considered by Eugene O'Neill in selecting the characters to tell his story of "Anna Christie," his great stage success. Thomas H. Ince followed the same plan in choosing the cast for his screen version of O'Neill's drama which is coming to the Princess Theatre today and Wednesday. This is a First National release.

The dodderingly pathetic, yet terrible old Swedish sea captain has been created imitatively by George Marion, who immortalized the same role on the New York and London stage. "Anna," the cynical Swedish wife who is regenerated by her love for a man and the influence of the sea has been portrayed by Blanche Sweet as no other actress, other than Pauline Lord, who starred in the stage production, could have done.

William Russell, as the blustering young Irish lover, is "type" as well as "action" perfect. Eugene Besserer plays "Marthy," the water-front hag whose self-abnegation marks one of the striking phases of the picture. Comedy-relief situations are handled capably by Chester Conklin. Fred Kohler, George Seigmann, Ralph Yearsley, and Victor Potel are all excellently cast as the "thick skin" peasant family on the Minnesota farm who play an important part in the life of "Anna Christie."

INVITED TO SCOTLAND

second in the race, with a total of 3,125 votes, divided as follows: Rush county 1,154; Fayette, 878 and Shelby 1,093. David Poer of Shelby county was third in line with 1,154 votes, divided as follows: Rush county 328, Fayette 108 and Shelby 718.

In this tri-county race, only one candidate, Mr. Shockey of Connersville, appeared on the marked ballots given out under the heading of the true American ballot, and believed to have been sponsored by the klan organization. This contestant ranked second in the democratic race.

lated today. Election clerks were worn out by their over night task of counting the long ballots and the work dragged as the morning wore away.

Both Leading Candidates
Decline to Make Statements

Indianapolis, Ind., May 7—While he appeared to have a safe majority, Ed Jackson, Republican candidate for governor declined to make a statement today. He remained at his home here. Mrs. Jackson said he was resting and "feeling fine."

Indianapolis, Ind., May 7—Dr. Carleton B. McCulloch, who was leading the Democratic aspirants for governor, but appeared to lack a majority, was in conference today with Thomas Taggart and other democratic leaders at McCulloch headquarters in the Claypool hotel. He declined to make a statement this morning, but said he would have something to say later. It was apparent the democratic leaders were anticipating the contest for the nomination for governor to go to the state convention June 5.

In the democratic race, the following vote was polled: For Lawrence A. Handley, total of 3,225 were divided as follows: Wayne, 1,683; Union 448; Shelby 726; Hancock 642; Franklin 294; Henry 642; Rush 306; Fayette 484.

For James A. Clifton, a total of 5,186 votes were cast and divided as follows: Wayne 386; Union 129; Shelby 877; Hancock 711; Franklin 510; Henry 726; Rush 1,095 and Fayette 752.

For William A. Yarling of Shelbyville, the total vote cast was 2,923, divided among the following counties of the district: Wayne 51; Union 29; Shelby 1,879; Hancock 441; Franklin 98; Henry 96; Rush 282 and Fayette 47.

William H. Myers, a candidate from Connersville, came next with a total of 1,532 votes. The following counties gave him the votes: Wayne 80; Union 270; Shelby 180; Hancock 345; Franklin 109; Henry 179; Rush 230; Fayette 139.

Walter Clay Reese of Shelbyville was another candidate and he polled 1,487 votes, divided as follows: Wayne 39; Union 3, Shelby 543; Hancock 162; Franklin 580, Henry 89; Rush 58 and Fayette 13.

Edward C. Eikman of New Palestine finished in last place with a total of 1,381 votes. His vote by counties was as follows: Wayne 37; Union 76; Shelby 98; Hancock 782; Franklin 202; Henry 52; Rush 116 and Fayette 18.

DAYTON SHARP DIED TODAY

Farmer of Posey Township Dies
Following Illness With Dropsy

Dayton Sharp, age 75 years, a farmer living in Posey township, on a road west of Rushville, died this morning about 6:30 o'clock, death resulting from dropsy.

The deceased was born in this state and had lived here all of his life, and for a greater portion of that time on the farm on which he died. He is survived by the widow and two sons. The funeral arrangements were not completed today.

Anti-Klan Candidates Win
County G. O. P. Nominations

James K. Mason of Milton, who received only 252 votes.

The congressional race on the democratic ticket in the county ran true to form, James A. Clifton of Connersville, the klan candidate, winning a plurality of 789 votes.

Rowland H. Hill of Carthage rolled up a big plurality in the race for the republican nomination for joint senator from Rush, Shelby and Fayette counties. His vote in Rush county was 2467. John F. Clifford of Connersville was second, polling 1010 votes.

In the democratic race for the same nomination, James I. Shockey, who had the endorsement of the klan, according to the marked ballots, carried the county with a plurality of 603 votes. Erastus McDaniel of Shelbyville was second with 551.

Loren Martin for clerk, Phil Wilk for auditor, Samuel Grant Gregg for sheriff, Frank Lawrence for treasurer A. J. Carr for surveyor and Chester A. Meal for commissioner from the southern district, all regarded as anti-klan candidates, were nominated on the republican county ticket.

George Bell, present incumbent, won out over John D. Osborn in the race for the nomination for commissioner from the northern district. Both were endorsed on the marked ballots distributed by the klan on the eve of the election.

Martin, who is the present clerk, lacked only a few votes of polling more than both of the candidates. He received 2119 as against 2175 cast for both DeMumbrum and Jinks. His plurality over DeMumbrum was 574, Jinks running a poor third with 630.

Wilk, the present auditor, defeated William R. Martin of Union township by 364 votes. They were the only candidates and Martin had the endorsement of the klan. This was one contest where anti-klanmen feared defeat and klansmen were confident of victory because the lines were clearly drawn between two candidates. Wilk ran on an efficiency platform, pointing to his record of service in the auditor's office for almost four years.

The five-cornered race for the republican nomination for sheriff was one that puzzled the political prognosticators. Neither Hunt nor Gregg had the endorsement of the klan. On some marked ballots distributed before the election, only Walker and Morgan had crosses after their names, and on others Armstrong was also included in the supposed klan endorsement.

Hunt has been elected for the second term as sheriff, which militated against his candidacy because the state law provides that a man shall not be permitted to serve more than two consecutive terms of two years each as sheriff out of any given period of six years.

Gregg won a clean-cut victory over the field, with a plurality of 263. His nearest opponent was Morgan, who polled 1355 votes and who made the race two years ago against Hunt for the nomination. Hunt ran ahead of Walker and Armstrong finished last.

The race for the republican nomination for treasurer was similar in some respects to the auditor's race, because there were only two candidates, one of which was endorsed by the klan. Lawrence, who is the present treasurer, polled 649 more votes than Stevens, who had a cross after his name on the klan ballots.

A. J. Carr of Carthage defeated Frank Catt, the present surveyor, who was looked upon as a klan candidate, by a majority of 153 votes.

Both George H. Bell and John D. Osborn were endorsed by the klan in the race for the republican nomination for commissioner from the northern district. Bell, who is the present commissioner, won by the safe margin of 766 votes.

The klan and anti-klan issue was involved in the race for the nomination for commissioner from the southern district, Edwin O. George, endorsed by the klan, losing to Chester A. Meal, by a majority of 199.

The winners in all of the contested races for places on the democratic ticket were endorsed by the klan, according to the marked ballot.

Barlow defeated Staples for clerk by a majority of 812 and Myers won over Hunt by a majority of 791 for auditor. Coons defeated Wesner for sheriff by a majority of 754 and Pike won out over Cook in the race for commissioner from the southern district by 766 votes.

Other candidates for nominations on the two tickets, who had no opposition and whose names did not appear on the primary ballot, are as follows:

Republican—Charles W. Trowbridge of Mays, representative from Rush and Henry counties; Albert C.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 7, 1924

The glad awakening—As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness. Psalm 17:15.

Prayer:—Purify our hearts now, O God, and then we can not but live righteously and see thee.

Soft Soap Justice

After a lapse of nine years, a man indicted for second degree murder in the District of Columbia was brought to trial—and acquitted in a few minutes. In the local jail of the District languish convicted first degree murderers whose crimes were committed four or five years ago, but who, on one pretext or another, have thus far escaped the penalty provided by law.

Recently several hundred liquor cases pending in the District courts were nolle prossed because the prolonged delay in bringing them to trial had resulted in the loss of witnesses necessary to a conviction. The efforts of the police in the latter cases were wholly futile.

This is the situation in Washington, the capital of the nation, but conditions are about the same throughout the country. In Chicago the father of a murdered son attended court ten times to see justice meted out to the murdered. Each time the case was continued, until finally the father took the law into his own hands and shot the killer of his boy. Yet we are astonished at the prevalence of crime and marvel at the remarkable murder record of our large cities as compared with Great Britain where justice is swift and sure.

The American Bar Association has a committee engaged in working out a plan for avoiding the law's delays. All success to their efforts. It is high time that the people had a demonstration of the consequences that should attend closely on the commission of every crime.

In smaller communities murders are infrequent, but when they are committed, we are confronted with the same problem as the larger cities.

Much of the law's delay can be avoided if judges will not permit trifling by attorneys who seek to postpone trial of their client until public sentiment has cooled off.

Few rural communities have any complaint against their judges, who are closer to the people and with few exceptions will not permit any temporizing with justice.

But the delay in larger centers has a psychological effect that affects the whole country and tends to license crime in every community.

Crow Shooting Contest

A great powder company of this country is offering $2500 in merchandise prizes in a three-months crow-killing contest.

The Audubon Societies of our country are protesting against the wholesale slaughter of the crow, claiming that while it destroys some corn when it first sprouts, the crow is engaged all the year round destroying insect pests that are harmful to the farmer.

Governor Baxter of Maine is out in a vigorous protest against boosting the powder business by this method. He said this shooting contest will result in destroying most of the birds beside crows that are not protected by law.

Prominent naturalists all agree that the crow is one of the farmers' friends and should be entitled to the protection of law. They say that any extensive interference with the balance of natural life as nature has adjusted it is likely to have serious consequences.

Investigation has proved that where one species of wild life, particularly a bird like the crow which destroys insects, is driven away or killed in large numbers, the insects on which it lives are likely to become pests.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAYFrom Daily Republican
Friday, May 7, 1909

Dayton is preparing for the event of her life next month when the world famous acroplanists, the Wright brothers, will return from their trip abroad and Rush county is to share in the glory of the occasion. As boys, the Wright brothers often visited here and their father, Bishop Milton Wright, was here recently, the guest of relatives and friends. Mrs. Cora Dillon of North Main street and Miss Grace Frazier of Center township cousins of the Wright brothers, have received an invitation from Bishop Wright, urging that he come to Dayton on the occasion of the great demonstration for his sons.

J. B. Schrichte, the veteran monument dealer of Rushville, was in Carthage Thursday looking after business, and gave the Citizen office a call, says the Carthage Citizen. Mr. Schrichte came from Germany to the United States when a young man eighteen years old. He worked for fifty cents a day for three years and his brother, who was earning $1.25 per day, often asked him for a loan.

The Milroy high school alumni held its first annual banquet at the school auditorium Wednesday night.

The meeting was a complete success. Ninety-three were present and of this number fifty became members of the society. Toasts followed the banquet; the following responded each being eloquently introduced by toastmaster, Dr. Hume, J. L. Shauk Arie Taylor, Bass Wilson, Pearl Booth, Catherine Barton and Claude R. Crane.

Mrs. Ben L. Smith has returned from an extended visit with her daughter Mrs. Emma Slaughter in Chicago.

Miss Ella and Francis Dean of Franklin are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Dean in North Harrison street.

Levi Hilligoss, a well preserved man of almost ninety years, is here this week visiting among his large relationship. He has just returned from Colorado where he spent the winter. His home is in Boone county.

Mrs. Hillary Haydon of North Main street is recovering from an attack of tonsillitis.

The Daily Republican made an experiment oiling the street around the building today to lay the dust. Two barrels of crude oil were used.

Harry Boyd delightfully entertained a number of his friends last night in his suite of rooms over the bowling alley with a three course supper.

Mrs. Leonard Clark went to Connersville today to be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Porter and to attend the May festival.

Hunt's Washington LetterBY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Democrats already are crowing over "the Presidential Victory of 1924."

In partisan Democratic circles, the battle is all over—so far as results are concerned—except the detail of counting the ballots.

So cocky are the party's "leaders" over the "certainty" of success that new stationery just ordered for use at Democratic headquarters bears no printed return card, no address—just the picture, in blood-red ink, of a crowing rooster, neck arched, wings flapping, proclaiming victory.

This, when not only the presidential and vice presidential candidates are wholly matters of speculation, but even the temporary chairman for the convention has not been decided on.

Garrett, although only 48, is one of the seniors of Congress, in point of service. This session he completes 20 years in the lower house, during which time he has proven one of the steadiest, most consistent workers on the Democratic side. As one of the four Democratic members of the rules committee, he is one of his party's legislative strategists.

A slender, sallow Southerner, is he, actually rivaling Nick Longworth, Republican leader in the House, in point of baldness, but hiding the barren expanse of his cranial dome with a thin thatch of long hair from one side, carefully combed upward and across the top.

A good speaker, of the fiery, dramatic type, Garrett doubtless could get the Democratic delegates away to a spectacular, hip-hip-hooray start. How they would finish, well, that would be the lookout of the permanent chairman.

But if they want him to finish

the job, he could do that, too. For that's his name—Finis!

HAD he not committed himself definitely to the McAdoo candidacy, Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, probably would have been picked to call the convention to order.

Pat is his party's prize elephant baiter, and it is the G. O. P. elephant that must be trapped if the Democratic donkey is to have the range of the White House grounds these next four years.

Pat's spears of satire and ridicule pierce more deeply through the thick hide of Old Guard Republicanism than all the harpoons of abuse that are hurled by his henchmen. A few phrases by him, a pointed question or two, often is sufficient to start an angry trumpeting by Senate Republicans that will last through a whole afternoon.

WHETHER as officials of the convention or just as delegates, Democratic United States senators will be on the job at New York to a man. And they're all pepped up at the prospect.

From Robinson, of Arkansas, party leader in the Senate, to Ferris of Michigan and Fletcher of Florida, who are seldom heard from except on roll-calls, they're looking forward to the convention and the campaign with an optimism and faith in the ultimate outcome that defies all rules of rhyme or reason.

They are even convinced that out of the bloody battle, which all agree must be waged at New York before a leader for the campaign is chosen, the party will emerge in "perfect harmony," without animosities, with no groups nursing a grouse over black eyes and bruises, with a united spirit and will to win that will be invincible!

Convention hostilities, in fact, are counted on to deepen campaign unity.

Which should prove that as optimists, Democrats lead the world!

ARRELL

U. S. To Win Olympic

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, May 7.—Form shown in the early dual meets on the Pacific Coast and in the Pennsylvania and Drake relay carnivals ought to serve as a stimulant to those who have been having bad heart action when they think of the fate awaiting the American team at the Paris Olympics this summer.

The American team won the last Olympic track and field games in Antwerp by winning nine events and by scoring numerous points as places in the other events.

Although it is too early to make any accurate forecasts it is safe to assume that the American team will repeat its victory in seven of the nine events that were turned in at Antwerp and that it has a splendid chance to win nine of the events which were lost.

Among the events that were won by the Americans at the last Olympics were the pole vault and the 56 pound weight event. It is quite possible and, in fact very probable that the Americans will lose the pole vault this year and the 56-pound weight event has been removed from the program.

Of the events that were lost in Antwerp, the Americans are almost sure to win the broad jump, the hop-step-jump, the shot-put, the discus throw, the 110-meter hurdles, the 1,600-meter relay race and the marathon. The chances for winning the 400-meter, 800-meter or 1,500-meter races are very bright.

Many of the experts are feeling pessimistic because they reason that the European athletes will have been so greatly improved since they competed against the Americans in Antwerp. This should be granted because the European nations are getting better coaching and their manpower of the nations that engaged in the Great War should have been improved just as much in the four years as the European rivals.

It is a known fact that the United States will have much better representation in the weight events than they had at Antwerp. It will be a surprise if "Tiny" Hartranft doesn't break the world's record in the shot-put event at Paris. The California youngster already has broken the record in unofficial attempts on the Pacific Coast.

Hartranft also has beaten the Olympic discus mark of 1920 by over nine feet, and he ought to make a new record in this event. There is very little danger that Walter Christie, head field coach of the American team will allow Hartranft or young Clarence Houser to over-indulge before they go to Paris.

Clarence Tootell, the giant former Bowdoin star, has also broken the world's record for the hammer throw in trials and he ought to make a new record at Paris when he has so much to encourage him to do his very best.

In the broad jump the American team will be represented by Ned Gordin, former Harvard star and the holder of the world's record made since 1920. Dehart Hubbard, the colored star from the University of Michigan, is also close to a new record-maker in the broad jump and in the hop step and jump.

Earl Thompson, competing for Canada, won the 110-meter hurdles at Antwerp and broke the record, but he is not eligible for amateur competition now and the American hurdlers are now the best in the world.

American sprinters and high jumpers are still supreme and they are certain to win if they can hold their form. The American quarter-milers and half-milers are more formidable this year than they were in 1920 and the milers are also more promising than they were in Belgium.

With Clarence De Mar, the Boston pumper, leading the marathoners, the chances for an American victory, in the classic of the games are better than they ever were in the past.

KEEPING ONE EYE
ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero—Zach Wheat. The veteran Brooklyn outfielder hit a homer in the eighth inning with two on and beat the Braves 3 to 0.

Babe Ruth knocked in two runs with a double and scored another after a pass, furnishing all the runs that gave the Yanks a 3 to 2 victory over the Athletics. Eight straight losses for the A's.

Heilmann's homer with one on and his sacrifice fly scored three runs and helped the Tigers beat the White Sox 6 to 4.

Ray Kromer, rookie pitcher from the Pacific Coast held the Cubs to two hits and the Pirates won 2 to 0. Cuyler, Rookie outfielder, hit a single and triple for the Pirates.

Two homers by Cy Williams and one by Ford gave the Phils another victory over the Giants, 5 to 4.

Bunching hits off two pitchers, the Browns beat the Indians 7 to 4. Sisler stole home in the first inning.

Behind the good pitching of Fahr, a rookie, the Red Sox beat the Senators 14 to 4. It was the sixth straight victory for Boston, the longest the club has had since 1919.

turning from the false alarm, Walter Easley, who was piloting the pumper, was pinched by the youngster police department for speeding. However, he was released.

Constable Frank Comella directed traffic at Third and Main and on barely escaping being run over by Franklin Miller and Wilbur Wolters, he enacted his first duty as policeman. Miller and Wolters were arrested for speeding and were taken before Mayor Conover for trial. The latter imposed a two hour term in jail on them.

They were locked up by deputy Easley and Colver, the photographer wishing a picture of the notable prisoners, hastened to the jail to take it. The presence of confiscated whisky near the cell compelled a change of apartments for them.

Judge Wyatt of the Circuit court imposed a sentence of six months in the penal farm and a $100 fine on Chuck Taylor, who was waiting in jail for sentence. Sheriff Caldwell accompanied the prisoner to the court room.

Elwin Readle as County Treasurer found that his experience of handling Webster's Dictionary came in handy in looking up tax reports.

Agricultural Agent, Robert Marshall, gave the day's market reports over the telephone and instructed several farmers as to daily problems of their business. He worked like a veteran at the job.

Robert Newbold learned the immensity of the duties of City Treasurer and spent much of his time pouring over the books like he had never before done.

Recorder Loren Winkler was in office at a slack time. However, he learned much by closely watching the books. Plats of every small settlement in Rush county were displayed before him.

Probably the greatest amount of business was carried on at the high school where Arthur Wilson and Douglas Morris held sway. Their sixty minute reign saw many things done in favor of the students, which was naturally expected.

Probably the most pronounced was the issuing of a proclamation announcing the emancipation of the entire school after two p. m. Friday. How much power they really had in the pinch remains to be seen when Friday arrives.

Superintendent Morris spent most of his time inspecting the school while principal Wilson had a host of duties to perform. Wilson expelled several girls from class and punished Fritz Roth and Churchill Allen severely with his powerful voice. He exercised his power with the rod of learning also on one boy.

Outside of the false fire alarm, Sheriff Caldwell was summoned to quell a false riot but he either arrived too late or there was no disturbance at all for when he got there everything was quite and peaceful.

Chief of Police Sherman arrested several violators of the law, one being Albert Cotton, who had parked his car on the wrong side of the street. Cotton, being a school teacher, was released, though, by Sherman for fear of the consequences.

County Superintendent of the schools, John Kendall spent his time inspecting the books and still detests the work or anything connected with the school.

Outside of a few unusual disturbances, the city was run excellently by the boys and a maximum of arrests accounted for the fact the same persons tried to take advantage of the occasion. But they were greatly fooled.

At ten o'clock the veterans resumed their positions and business again entered its usual grind after an hour's layoff.

Eliminations for the big track and field meet Friday afternoon resulted as follows at the Havens school Tuesday afternoon:

Miss Rowena Kennedy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Kennedy of this city, has been pledged to Mu Phi Epsilon sorority, a national musical honorary sorority at DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind.

The pupils of the Jackson school will entertain their parents and friends with an informal musical program Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Each room, along with the Boy Scouts of the school, will contribute a part to the program.

Mrs. Bert Mullin delightfully entertained the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club Tuesday afternoon at her home in North Perkins street. Following the interesting card games light refreshments were served.

Mrs. William Rittenmeir was hostess Tuesday evening to the members of Mrs. Logan's Sunday school class of the First United Presbyterian church, at her home in East Second street. A short business meeting was held and a social hour enjoyed. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

The members of the Glenwood Embroidery Club spent a most enjoyable day last Friday at the home of Mrs. Charles Combs in Glenwood. At the noon hour a pitch-in dinner was served to fourteen members and their children with several guests. The next meeting will be held May 9 at the home of Mrs. Harry Culbertson.

Mr. Chester Williams, Mrs. Bert Heaton and Mrs. Burl Matney will entertain with a Mother's and Daughter's party in honor of the Noble township 4H Sewing Club at the home of Mrs. Matney Friday, May 9, at two o'clock. All girls between the ages of 10 and 18 years, who reside in Noble township or attend school there, are cordially invited to come and bring their mothers. No special invitations are being sent out.

A large delegation from the Woman's Home Missionary society of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church is preparing to attend the thirty-third annual district meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Connersville district, to be held in Connersville Thursday. The district meeting begins this afternoon and evening, but the delegation from here will not attend until Thursday, when the main sessions will be held.

Mrs. John Jordan and Mrs. C. A. Dugal went to Connersville this afternoon where they will attend to-night's sessions of the convention. Mrs. F. A. Winold of Cincinnati, Ohio, will deliver the address to-night, and Miss Lavienna Compton of this city will be on the program. A number of the Rushville ladies are planning to attend Thursday's session.

improvement of North Sexton street above Ninth street, for curb, gutter and sidewalk, and the council will accordingly receive bids on this improvement on June 3.

A contract was entered into last night with the A. G. Nutting Company of Cincinnati, O., Chemical engineers, who will supervise the laying of the asphalt paving in Morgan street, and make the necessary chemical tests as it is being laid, in order to give the city a good street, and a high test grade of material.

The council also approved the appointment of Frank Havens, as city sanitary inspector, and the mayor announced that the officer had been given full police powers.

A petition was presented by Wade Sherman, calling attention to the city that the south end of Perkins street is blocked by piles of debris placed there by the contractors who wrecked the Odd Fellows building after the fire. Mr. Sherman owns a building that was occupied by the armory, and his petition served notice on the city to clear the street or he would institute civil proceedings in court.

Several young people interested in tennis, appeared before the council and requested that the council or park board assist in the upkeep of the courts at the park this summer. The action was referred to the park board for a report, and the councilmen expressed themselves as being in favor of building and keeping three or four courts in condition this summer, and that the park custodian, who is now at work, could devote a portion of his time to the courts.

The city clerk was instructed to notify the firm that installed the four pedestal traffic posts at the downtown street intersections that the city expected to assume charge of them. The contract was entered into with the firm several years ago, and was to be forfeited at any time if the firm failed to obey all provisions, and in recent months the posts have been neglected.

The councilmen are considering a plan of removing these posts to the entrances of the park, and at the downtown streets install small wicker lighted posts of plate glass and which are easily observed by motorists, and permits more room in making a turn.

The councilmen also appointed Harry Ferather as inspector in the Morgan street paving job, which will soon be ready of the laying of the concrete foundation, that underlies the asphalt.

There was considerable business that had to be carried over, and the session adjourned to meet again Thursday night to complete the session.

FOR PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Joe Russell was arrested this morning in front of the police station by Police Chief Blackburn on a charge of public intoxication. He was placed in jail and will be given a hearing in police court.

HANDKERCHIEF HAS IMPORTANT ROLE IN THE FASHION WORLD

By HEDDA HOYT (Written for United Press)

New York, May 7.—Consider the lowly little "handkerchief," Always chic and always swanky—Tucked in a vest or worn on the wrist; Any place for fashion's gist. Wrapped 'round the throat, or worn on a garter Poor little hank! It sure is a martyr!

The handkerchief plays an important role in the fashion world today. It forms Milady's hatband, acts as a scarf, becomes a charming appendage on her wristlet, conceals her powderpuff, forms the bow of her garter, and does numerous other fashion stunts.

One has only to glance at the accessory departments of the shops to get the full significance of the 'kerchief's power. Counters are laden with handkerchiefs of every color, every size and every price. Some of these sell as high as $15 each. The average wisp of chiffon or fine linen sells from 75 cents to $2. And each gown must have a handkerchief of its own! So the yearly handkerchief bill assumes enormous proportions, if Milady follows the mode.

One of the newest "hanky holders"—if one may call them that—is a finger ring with a silver loop attachment which holds the colorful chiffon handkerchief. There are worn on the little finger. Wristlets of velvet or beaded bands are fashioned in similar manner as a means for displaying the dainty handkerchief. Old ivory budhas suspended on necklaces are made so that they will open and close, being veritable hanky concealers.

POWDER PUFF BAGS

Then there are the powder-puff bags made of lovely silk handkerchiefs. These make adorable gifts and can be easily made. A circle is drawn on the center of the handkerchief sufficiently large to hold a powder-puff. A bias strip of silk is sewed about the circle through which is run a narrow ribbon. This forms a little bag, with four corners of the handkerchief making a ruffle. These are very lovely for evening wear.

Fine ecru lace trims many of the more elaborate handkerchiefs this Spring, forming the border for the pastel-hued chiffon or georgette square, the lace in some cases being so wide that it forms almost the entire handkerchief. Fine linen squares of bright shades are still popular and these are embroidered in self-color or trimmed with lace edges this season. The drawn-thread effect and colorful embroidered patterns are not quite as popular as formerly.

GARTER HANDKERCHIEFS

These are also lovely gifts for the bride or the young miss. Silk ribbon garters of pastel shades are made, with loops at the sides, through which are run tiny silk handkerchiefs of chiffon or crepe de chene. Though the garters are of the same shade, the handkerchiefs adorning them are of contrasting colors.

On mentioning the oddity of the garter 'kerchief, the clerk explained that these were particularly popular with the "dancing debbies", who were forever losing their handkerchiefs and wanted to carry extra ones to replace lost ones. At any rate, the tiny lace-edged squares make adorable garter bows.

FASHIONS IN LIP-STICKS

Women don't retire these days to redden their lips. They carry their lipstick right with them where they can have them always handy. Many lipstick containers are shown this season which in themselves are work of art. There are tiny doll-shaped cases made to contain lip-sticks, hand-painted pendants for necklaces, which conceal the lip-stick; lip-stick tassels for trimming one's frock, lip-stick umbrella handles, and what-not. The Mandarin tassel is one of the most effective ways of concealing the lip-stick. These adorn some of the imported frocks, handbags and fans. They are colorful, tubular cases, from which are suspended silken tassels. Sometimes the lip-stick case is concealed beneath the tassel itself.

BRACELET MIRRORS

Little ribbon wristlets with medal-shaped mirrors are among the latest novelties. The mirrors are about the size of the average wrist-watch and are sometimes outlined in brilliants.

for governor, in case no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast and the nomination goes to the convention.

The anti-Jackson forces elected five delegates in Rushville township, making a clean sweep, and one in Ripley township, and Jackson supporters elected the remainder of the Rush county delegation to the convention.

The five winning in Rushville township, and the vote they received, are as follows: Sarah J. Mull, 1004; Russell B. Tittsworth, 1237; Ann Elizabeth Amos 1098; Clara L. Bebout 1224; William L. King 1220.

The defeated candidates in this township and their vote follows: Clarence Sampson, 418; Josie Webb, 503; Alta M. Posey, 394; John F. Boyd 538; Eli Kinney, 620; Virgil Maffett, 662.

The other anti-Jackson delegate elected was Lilburn M. White of Ripley township. He received 223 votes compared with 109 cast for Jasper A. Nigh and 64 for Morris L. Henley.

Harry Spaulding defeated Loyd A. Wagoner in Orange township, 127 to 60 and L. B. Weaver was elected delegate from Anderson township 202 to 123, over Charley F. Davis.

Court Oldham was chosen as delegate from Center and Jackson townships, defeating Harvey M. Newhouse 185 to 144.

Union and Washington townships elected Charles G. Mauzy as their delegate. He won over Charles H. Elwell, 253 to 138.

Walter Norris made a hard fight against Harold Matney for delegate from Noble and Richland, but was defeated 169 to 160.

Douglas Morris, Samuel L. Trabue and John O. Hill were elected delegates to the democratic state convention from Rushville township. The first two are said to be McCulloch men and the third a Cravens man. The vote in this township was as follows:

Morris and Hill, 236; Trabue 234; Lawrence L. Allen 164; Carrie C. Brown 210; Henry V. Logan 120; John D. Megee 192; Nina M. Robertson 60; Morris M. Winship 205.

The only other contest was in Orange township where John A. D. Wagoner defeated George M. Hardesty 166 to 73.

The remainder of the delegation, elected without contest, is as follows: Ripley, Roy Herkless; Anderson, William D. Martin; Center and Jackson, Walter Bitner; Washington and Union William B. Whiton; Noble and Richland Oliver J. Cook.

RE-ELECTION OF MILLER FORECAST

Precinct No. 9, Oliver M. Dale, 138; Morris R. Howell 62.

Precinct No. 10, Will M. Frazee; 98; Clinton W. Phillips 38.

Other committeemen nominated in Rushville township without opposition are: Precinct No. 2, William E. Harton; No. 5, Henry Freese; No. 7, Oliver Wagoner.

In precinct No. 1 in Ripley township, Amos L. Hill received 137 votes and defeated Clancy Nigh, who got 38. Fred Brooks was nominated without opposition in No. 2 and in No. 3 Byron Ball won out over Robert C. Hudson, receiving 53 votes to Hudson's 40.

There were no contests in Posey township, Delbert Winkler being chosen for precinct No. 1 without opposition and Charley Marshall for precinct No. 2.

There was a contest in the second precinct in Walker, Jacob G. Fox winning out over Charley Edwards. The vote was 47 to 42. In the first precinct Dossie Callahan becomes committeeman without contest.

George F. Mounts was defeated in Orange No. 2, losing to Roscoe Jones 56 to 40. Eph Peck will be the committeeman in No. 1, having been unopposed in the primary.

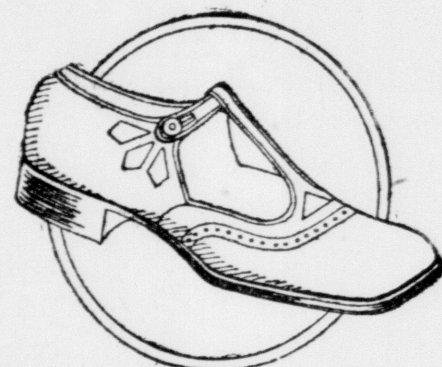

Frank McCorkle won in the first precinct of Anderson township, defeating Levi B. Weaver, 91 to 78. Ernest G. Seright won in the second precinct, defeating William M. Bosley 115 to 44.

Clarence W. Newhouse had no opposition in Jackson township and in

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"A Blessing to Suffering Women," Writes One

Louisville, Illinois.—"I certainly thank you for the great benefit I have received from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I first learned about it from my step-mother who got so much help from it. Several years ago I took it for inward weakness and since then I have taken it during the Change of Life and it has been a great help to me. It certainly is a blessing to suffering women and I take pleasure in recommending it. My health has been better this summer than it has been for five years. I am now able to do all my work and have canned 340 quarts of fruit and vegetables this summer."—Mrs. KATE McPEAK, Louisville, Illinois.

Wants Letter Used As Proof

Frankford, Pennsylvania.—"I am sure if women who suffer through the Change of Life as I have, with hot flashes, nervousness and other weaknesses, would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial they would be benefited as I was. My nerves were so bad that every little noise made me jump, but now I am not bothered that way at all. My husband says he really hated to look at me I looked so miserable. I hope you will use this letter as proof of the help the Vegetable Compound is giving me."—Mrs. ABBIE HARVEY, 5701 Leonard St., Frankford, Pa.

Forced To Remain in Bed

Carlisle, Illinois.—"During the Change of Life I suffered with severe nervousness and with disturbances of the entire system. These continued probably two years before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I could do none of my work and was not always able to be up. For ten days at a time I was forced to remain in bed with my hips propped higher than my head and the pains were terrible. The doctor helped some but each time I was forced to go over the same suffering. I had taken the Vegetable Compound in 1910 after my twins were born and it had helped me so I decided to try it again. I became better and gained in strength. I have taken it for about three years now but not steadily. I am able to do my housework but I avoid all heavy lifting and washing and ironing as I know I am not strong enough yet. I give the Vegetable Compound to my daughters and recommend it to my friends."—Mrs. LOUISA B. BRAND, 450 Fairfax Street, Carlisle, Illinois.

In a recent country-wide canvass of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, over 100,000 replies were received and 98 out of every 100 reported they had been benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

A Welcome Member of the Family

A MOTOR car is never more appreciated than in the springtime. Its convenience and enjoyment are shared by all the family—and by speeding up the day's work, it provides more time for recreation.

A Ford Touring Car becomes a welcome member of the family. It provides every motor car essential at the lowest price for which a five passenger car has ever sold—a price only made possible by complete manufacture, in tremendous volume, in the largest and most economically operated plants in the automobile industry.

By controlling every step in manufacture, from the mining of the ore to delivery of the finished car, Ford eliminates waste and reduces vital costs to a minimum. One profit is made—hundreds are saved.

This efficiency of manufacture is accurately reflected in the quality and price of the Ford Touring car.

ANTI-KLAN CANDIDATES WIN COUNTY G. O. P. NOMINATIONS

Men Endorsed on Marked Ballot are Victorious in Races For Places on
Democratic Ticket

RESULTS A BIG SURPRISE

Coolidge Carries County by Almost
11 to 1 and Jackson Wins Plurality of 651

HOLT DEMOCRATIC CHOICE

Vote is Heavier Than in 1922 Primary, But Not as Large as Indicated by First Reports

Candidates for nomination on the republican county ticket, endorsed
by the Ku Klux Klan on marked ballots which were distributed throughout the county, were defeated by anti-klan candidates in the primary election Tuesday, and candidates on
the democratic county ticket, who
had the endorsement of the Klan,
were without exception nominated.

The primary result was a great surprise as it was conceded by the anti-klan forces that the republican
Klan candidates would win.

The result is explained largely by
the fact that anti-klan democrats
voted the republican ballot, which
weakened the opposition to the Klan
candidates seeking places on the democratic county ticket and resulted in their victory.

Although heavier than in 1922, the vote cast Tuesday was not as much larger than 1922 as was expected.

The total vote cast Tuesday by
both republicans and democrats for governor was 6365 and two years
ago the total vote cast for United States senator on both tickets was 5590, making the vote this year 955
larger.

The total republican vote for governor this year was 4424 as compared with 3763 cast for the republican candidates for senator in 1922
a difference of 661.

President Coolidge carried the county over Hiram Johnson for the republican nomination for president
by almost eleven to one, receiving 3812 votes to 360 cast for Johnson.

Ed Jackson, acknowledged to be the Klan choice for governor on the republican ticket, carried the county
by 651 votes. He received 2060 votes
as against 2424 for his five opponents. Shank was second with 1349.

Olin R. Holt, endorsed by the Klan
for governor on the democratic ticket, won a plurality of 112 votes. His nearest opponent was McCulloch,
who was supported by the organization democrats and who received 669
votes.

RICHMOND MAYOR NOMINATED

Richard N. Elliott of Connersville
won the republican nomination in the Sixth District congressional race,
registering more than his two opponents combined, and having a plurality of 7,443 votes.

On the democratic side, the race
was won by Lawrence A. Handley,
mayor of Richmond, over James Clifton, mayor of Connersville, and
the Wayne county nominee pulled through with 39 votes in his favor.

Clifton on the democratic ballot
and Dr. W. R. Phillips of Orange on
the republican ticket, were both marked candidates on the ballot distributed by the Ku Klux Klan, and
in each instance they ran in second place.

The votes for each candidate by
counties are as follows:

For Richard N. Elliott, a total of 15,522 votes. Wayne 3,939; Union,
486; Hancock 1,044; Franklin 551;
Henry 3,835; Rush 2,504; Fayette,
1,359.

For William R. Phillips, a total of

School Boys Spend Hectic Hour Running Official Business

Between Running Down False
Alarms, Arresting Speeders and
Violators of Motor Laws and Sentencing Prisoners to Penal Farm,
They Find Holding Office is Ardu-
ous Business. Part of Boys Week
Celebration

By FRANKLIN MULLIN
(City Editor of the Daily Republican
from 9 to 10 a. m. today)

Following the example of many other cities of the country, Rushville
was officially managed by boys from
the high school between nine and ten o'clock this morning. Almost every elective and appointive public office
of the county and city was occupied by the boys, who will some day in reality be the business men of Rush-
ville.

For the short time they were in office each one learned much of the business carried on daily by the officials and certainly realized that
they should more appreciate the fine
education that the citizens of Rush-
ville are giving them.

Mayor Conover was sworn in by
Mr. Thomas, and immediately on entering office held trial for a man who had parked his truck wrong. The victim was released but not until he had received a severe lecture.

The fire department was given a workout when they answered a call
to the Rushville Furniture Company.
Since the call was not listed on the directory some trouble was experience in finding the location of the fire. Finally after a nerve-racking

run to the factory, they found that
a customary fire was in progress that is, there was no blaze at all. On return to the city hall.

BOULEVARD BIDS ARE DUE JUNE 3

No Remonstrances Filed Against
Memorial Park Drive and Council
Decides to Advertise

SHORT SESSION IS HELD

Adjourned Meeting Scheduled For
Thursday Night When Postponed
Business Will be Transacted

The city council transacted considerable business at the Tuesday
night session, and the meeting adjourned until Thursday night, when
the session will be completed and
further business transacted.

Bids were opened last night on the
proposals for an ash conveyor at the water and light plant, to fit in with the new equipment that is being installed, and several competitive firms
offered bids. All of them were taken
under consideration, and a decision
will be made within a few weeks.

Last night was the time set for
hearing remonstrances on the improvement resolution and annexation
of Memorial park, and no one appeared. The council accordingly will advertise for bids for the construction of the Memorial park boulevard,
and four kinds of material will be specified in the bids. The proposals
for the boulevard will be received
and opened on June 3.

RE-ELECTION OF MILLER FORECAST

Republican County Chairman Will
be Chosen at Meeting of Central Committee Saturday

MANY PRECINCT CONTESTS

Klan Issue Figures in Rushville
Township Where There Were Con-
tests in Seven Precincts

The re-election of Glen Miller as republican county chairman, at a meeting of the new county central committee Saturday, was predicted
today following the election of precinct committeemen in the primary Tuesday.

The Klan issue figured to some extent where there were contests for precinct committeemen, especially in Rushville township, but a number of committeemen who are regarded as members of the Klan have pledged
their support to the present county
chairman, and it is not now regarded
as likely that any candidate will be brought out against Mr. Miller.

There were no contests for precinct committeemen on the democratic ticket. They also will elect a county
chairman Saturday.

The primary law provides that the
week following the election of the county chairmen in each county, the
county chairmen shall meet by districts and elect district chairmen.

NOMINATION OF JACKSON IS FORECAST

Klan Candidate for Republican Nomination for Governor Expected
to Have Clear Majority

MAY RUN 12,000 TO 15,000

McCulloch Leads Democratic Opponents in Governorship Race But
Majority is Unlikely

JOHNSON IS SNOWED UNDER

President Coolidge Apparently Carries State in Presidential Primary
6 or 7 To One

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 7—With
2,187 of the 3,406 precincts in the Indiana primary election heard from unofficially at noon today the nomination of Ed Jackson, Klan candidate for the Republican nomination
for governor, seemed assured.

It was expected his majority over
the other five candidates in the Republican race would be from 12,000
to 15,000.

In the Democratic race, with 2,207
precincts heard from unofficially, Dr.
Carleton McCulloch was leading Joseph
Cravens his nearest opponent,
by more than two to one.

McCulloch, however, did not have
a clear majority over the other democratic candidates necessary to assure the nomination.

Late in the morning, as reports
from the southern part of the state
came in, Cravens' edged George Dur-
gan of Lafayette out of second place
by a few hundred votes.

The vote in 2,207 precincts in the
democratic race stood:

McCulloch 58,674; Cravens 28,
233; Durgan, 27,570; Crittenger,
20,336; Holt, 17,033; Batt, 6,404;
Priest, 4,995; Risk, 4,148.

President Coolidge snowed under Hiram Johnson in the Republican presidential primary six or seven to
one, 2,033 precincts giving Coolidge
172,376 and Johnson 30,365.

In the Republican race for governor 2,187 precincts give:

Jackson, 114,079; Shank, 46,777;
Toner 34,051; Bush, 14,290; Davis
5,245; Dulberger 1,890.

While early returns this morning
indicated Mayor Shank and Jackson
were running a close race in the former's home county, later returns
placed Jackson in the lead.

Jackson's lead was further increased as results from outlying districts over the state came in.

Reports were slow in being tabu-

HILL, M'DANIEL SENATE NOMINEES

Carthage Man is Nominated on Republican Ticket and Shelbyville
Man by Democrats

HILL'S PLURALITY IS 469

Rowland Hill of Carthage was nominated on the republican ticket for joint senator from Rush-Fayette-
and Shelby counties, and on the democratic ballot, Erastus McDaniel
of Shelbyville polled the most votes
over two opponents.

Hill's plurality in the total is 469
votes, while McDaniel came out 93
ahead. Hill polled a total of 3,547
votes, divided as follows: Rush
county 2,467, Fayette 461 and Shelby 619.

Clyde W. Spurlin of Shelby county
ran second to Hill, by polling a total
of 3,078 votes, divided as follows:
Rush county 472; Fayette 752 and Shelby 1,854. John F. Clifford of Connersville came third, and polled a total of 3,033 votes, divided as follows: Rush county 1010; Fayette
1393 and Shelby 630.

In the democratic primary, Mc-
Daniel polled a total of 3,218 votes,
divided as follows: Rush county 551,
Fayette 371, and Shelby 2,296. James
I. Shookley of Connersville ranked

BURCHNELL SPENT LONG TIME IN A HOSPITAL

Following Attack of Malaria But Did Not Regain Lost Strength Until he Tried Tanlac.

"Since taking Tanlac I can speed up all day at the factory without even making a dent in my energy and then go home at quitting time happy and smiling," is the striking statement of James O. Burchnell, 714 Broadway, Muncie, Ind., a valued employee of a large steel and wire manufacturing company here.

"Following a three month's siege of malaria last fall that pulled my weight down from 142 lbs. to 96 lbs. and laid me up in a hospital 52 days,

I found Tanlac just the thing I needed to build me up.

"Tanalac brought back my appetite set my stomach in order, stopped my aches and pains, restored my lost weight and strength and left me feeling as vigorous and energetic as if nothing had ever been the matter with me. And as for my health now, I never had better. I eat fine, sleep fine and feel the same way."

Tanalac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40-million bottles sold.

Tanalac Vegetable Pills, for constipation made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANALAC.

FRIGHTENED BY BULLDOG

Elizabeth Hackleman Falls off Stone Wall and Breaks Arm

Miss Elizabeth Hackleman is recovering from injuries she sustained Monday afternoon, when she fell to the sidewalk from the stone wall in front of Albert Stevens home in West Fourth street. She received a broken arm, just below the elbow, and sprained her right ankle as a result of the accident.

Just as Miss Hackleman was going by the Stevens residence, a large bull dog ran towards her, and in her fright she ran into the yard and jumped to the sidewalk from the stone wall surrounding the yard. In jumping to the walk she fell, causing the injuries.

Greatest Drama at Princess

"Contract" was carefully considered by Eugene O'Neill in selecting the characters to tell his story of "Anna Christie," his great stage success. Thomas H. Ince followed the same plan in choosing the cast for his screen version of O'Neill's drama which is coming to the Princess Theatre today and Wednesday. This is a First National release.

The dodderingly pathetic, yet terrible old Swedish sea captain has been created inimitably by George Marion, who immortalized the same role on the New York and London stage. "Anna," the cynical Swedish waif who is regenerated by her love for a man and the influence of the sea has been portrayed by Blanche Sweet as no other actress, other than Pauline Lord, who starred in the stage production, could have done.

William Russell, as the blustering young Irish lover, is "type" as well as "action" perfect. Eugene Besserer plays "Marthy," the water-front hag whose self-abnegation marks one of the striking phases of the picture. Comedy-relief situations are handled capably by Chester Conklin. Fred Kohler, George Seigmann, Ralph Yearsley, and Victor Potel are all excellently cast as the "thick skin" peasant family on the Minnesota farm who play an important part in the life of "Anna Christie."

Loctfast Asphalt Shingles

They can be successfully laid over an old roof or on a new roof. The lock is tight, and they cannot blow up or curl up. Real quality is put in these shingles so that they will last for many years. Very little time is required to lay them.

Come to our office and allow us to demonstrate these shingles before buying. To see them and examine them is the best way to know of their superiority.

second in the race, with a total of 3,125 votes, divided as follows: Rush county 1,154; Fayette, 878 and Shelby 1,093. David Poer of Shelby county was third in line with 1,154 votes, divided as follows: Rush county 328, Fayette 108 and Shelby 718.

In this tri-county race, only one candidate, Mr. Shockley of Connersville, appeared on the marked ballots given out under the heading of the true American ballot, and believed to have been sponsored by the Klan organization. This contestant ranked second in the democratic race.

lated today. Election clerks were worn out by their over night task of counting the long ballots and the work dragged as the morning wore away.

Both Leading Candidates Decline to Make Statements

Indianapolis, Ind., May 7—While he appeared to have a safe majority, Ed Jackson, Republican candidate for governor, declined to make a statement today. He remained at his home here. Mrs. Jackson said he was resting and "feeling fine."

Indianapolis, Ind., May 7—Dr. Carleton B. McCulloch, who was leading the Democratic aspirants for governor, but appeared to lack a majority, was in conference today with Thomas Taggart and other democratic leaders at McCulloch headquarters in the Claypool hotel. He declined to make a statement this morning, but said he would have something to say later. It was apparent the democratic leaders were anticipating the contest for the nomination for governor to go to the state convention June 5.

ELLIOTT WINS A CLEAR MAJORITY

283; Shelby 1,315; Hancock, 240; Franklin 845; Henry 1,273; Rush, 1,466; Fayette 1,403.

For James K. Mason, a total of 3,541 votes were cast. They were as follows: Wayne 1,755; Union, 236; Shelby 215; Hancock 177; Franklin 108; Henry 521; Rush 252; Fayette 277.

In the democratic race, the following vote was polled: For Lawrence A. Handley, total of 5,225 were divided as follows: Wayne, 1,683; Union 448; Shelby 726; Hancock 642; Franklin 294; Henry 642; Rush 306; Fayette 484.

For James A. Clifton, a total of 5,186 votes were cast and divided as follows: Wayne 386; Union 129; Shelby 877; Hancock 711; Franklin 510; Henry 726; Rush 1,095 and Fayette 752.

For William A. Yantling of Shelbyville, the total vote cast was 2,923, divided among the following counties of the district: Wayne 51; Union 29; Shelby 1,879; Hancock 441; Franklin 98; Henry 96; Rush 282 and Fayette 47.

William H. Myers, a candidate from Connersville, came next with a total of 1,532 votes. The following counties gave him the votes: Wayne 80; Union 270; Shelby 180; Hancock 345; Franklin 109; Henry 179; Rush 230, Fayette 139.

Walter Clay Reese of Shelbyville was another candidate and he polled 1,487 votes, divided as follows: Wayne 39; Union 3; Shelby 543; Hancock 162; Franklin 580; Henry 89; Rush 58 and Fayette 13.

Edward C. Eikman of New Palestine finished in last place with a total of 1,381 votes. His vote by counties was as follows: Wayne 37; Union 76; Shelby 98; Hancock 782; Franklin 202; Henry 52; Rush 116 and Fayette 18.

DAYTON SHARP DIED TODAY

Farmer of Posey Township Dies Following Illness With Dropsy

Dayton Sharp, age 75 years, a farmer living in Posey township, on a road west of Rushville, died this morning about 6:30 o'clock, death resulting from dropsy.

The deceased was born in this state and had lived here all of his life, and for a greater portion of that time on the farm on which he died. He is survived by the widow and two sons. The funeral arrangements were not completed today.

James K. Mason of Milton, who received only 252 votes.

The congressional race on the democratic ticket in the county ran true to form; James A. Clifton of Connersville, the Klan candidate, winning a plurality of 789 votes.

Rowland H. Hill of Carthage rolled up a big plurality in the race for the republican nomination for joint senator from Rush, Shelby and Fayette counties. His vote in Rush county was 2467, John F. Clifford of Connersville was second, polling 1010 votes.

In the democratic race for the same nomination, James I. Shockley, who had the endorsement of the Klan, according to the marked ballots, carried the county with a plurality of 603 votes. Erastus McDaniel of Shelbyville was second with 551.

Loren Martin for clerk, Phil Wilk for auditor, Samuel Grant Gregg for sheriff, Frank Lawrence for treasurer A. J. Carr for surveyor and Chester A. Meal for commissioner from the southern district, all regarded as anti-Klan candidates, were nominated on the republican county ticket.

George Bell, present incumbent, won out over John D. Osborn in the race for the nomination for commissioner from the northern district. Both were endorsed on the marked ballots distributed by the Klan on the eve of the election.

Martin, who is the present clerk, lacked only a few votes of polling more than both of the candidates. He received 2119 as against 2175 cast for both DeMumbrum and Jinks. His plurality over DeMumbrum was 574, Jinks running a poor third with 630.

Wilk, the present auditor, defeated William R. Martin of Union township by 364 votes. They were the only candidates and Martin had the endorsement of the Klan. This was one contest where anti-Klansmen feared defeat and Klansmen were confident of victory because the lines were clearly drawn between two candidates. Wilk ran on an efficiency platform, pointing to his record of service in the auditor's office for almost four years.

The five-cornered race for the republican nomination for sheriff was one that puzzled the political prognosticators. Neither Hunt nor Gregg had the endorsement of the Klan. On some marked ballots distributed before the election, only Walker and Morgan had crosses after their names, and on others Armstrong was also included in the supposed Klan endorsement.

Hunt has been elected for the second term as sheriff, which militated against his candidacy because the state law provides that a man shall not be permitted to serve more than two consecutive terms of two years each as sheriff out of any given period of six years.

Gregg won a clean-cut victory over the field, with a plurality of 263. His nearest opponent was Morgan, who polled 1355 votes and who made the race two years ago against Hunt for the nomination. Hunt ran ahead of Walker and Armstrong finished last.

The race for the republican nomination for treasurer was similar in some respects to the auditor's race, because there were only two candidates, one of which was endorsed by the Klan. Lawrence, who is the present treasurer, polled 649 more votes than Stevens, who had a cross after his name on the Klan ballots.

A. J. Carr of Carthage defeated Frank Catt, the present surveyor, who was looked upon as a Klan candidate, by a majority of 153 votes.

Both George H. Bell and John D. Osborn were endorsed by the Klan in the race for the republican nomination for commissioner from the northern district. Bell, who is the present commissioner, won by the safe margin of 766 votes.

The Klan and anti-Klan issue was involved in the race for the nomination for commissioner from the southern district, Edwin O. George, endorsed by the Klan, losing to Chester A. Meal, by a majority of 199.

The winners in all of the contested races for places on the democratic ticket were endorsed by the Klan, according to the marked ballot.

Barlow defeated Staples for clerk by a majority of 812 and Myers won over Hunt by a majority of 791 for auditor. Coons defeated Wesner for sheriff by a majority of 754 and Pike won out over Cook in the race for commissioner from the southern district by 766 votes.

Other candidates for nominations on the two tickets, who had no opposition and whose names did not appear on the primary ballot, are as follows:

Republican—Charles W. Trowbridge of Mays, representative from Rush and Henry counties; Albert C.

Fremont Miller of Franklin, but will not come up as scheduled.

Donald Newman, who is also held on the charge of conspiracy, has not entered a plea, and it was stated that he would probably be given a parole pending good behavior, and upon promise to remain here as a witness in the prosecution of further cases.

It was expected that Taylor would be taken to the state farm in the morning to begin serving his term, which carries with it an additional 100 days if the $100 fine is not paid.

A suit set for trial today, in which Ithamer McCarty is plaintiff and Jesse Nicholson, defendant, a suit in ejectment and for damages, was not heard, as the defendant filed a motion for a change of venue and the case has been sent to Decatur county for trial.

Four complaints in the form of Stevens, prosecutor; John M. Lee, coroner.

Democrats—Ray Souders of Knightstown, representative from Rush and Henry counties; Gates Ketchum, prosecutor; Henry P. Metcalf of New Salem, coroner; LeRoy Divilbliss of Mays, Center township trustee; Edgar Wilson of Glenwood Union township assessor.

The glad awakening—As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness. Psalm 17:15.

Prayer:—Purify our hearts now, O God, and then we can not but live righteously and see thee.

Soft Soap Justice

After a lapse of nine years, a man indicted for second degree murder in the District of Columbia was brought to trial—and acquitted in a few minutes. In the local jail of the District languish convicted first degree murderers whose crimes were committed four or five years ago, but who, on one pretext or another, have thus far escaped the penalty provided by law.

Recently several hundred liquor cases pending in the District courts were nolle prossed because the prolonged delay in bringing them to trial had resulted in the loss of witnesses necessary to a conviction. The efforts of the police in the latter cases were wholly futile.

This is the situation in Washington, the capital of the nation, but conditions are about the same throughout the country. In Chicago the father of a murdered son attended court ten times to see justice meted out to the murdered. Each time the case was continued, until finally the father took the law into his own hands and shot the killer of his boy. Yet we are astonished at the prevalence of crime and marvel at the remarkable murder record of our large cities as compared with Great Britain where justice is swift and sure.

The American Bar Association has a committee engaged in working out a plan for avoiding the law's delays. All success to their efforts. It is high time that the people had a demonstration of the consequences that should attend closely on the commission of every crime.

In smaller communities murders are infrequent, but when they are committed, we are confronted with the same problem as the larger cities.

Much of the law's delay can be avoided if judges will not permit trifling by attorneys who seek to postpone trial of their client until public sentiment has cooled off.

Few rural communities have any complaint against their judges, who are closer to the people and with few exceptions will not permit any temporizing with justice.

But the delay in larger centers has a psychological effect that affects the whole country and tends to license crime in every community.

Crow Shooting Contest

A great powder company of this country is offering $2500 in merchandise prizes in a three-months crow-killing contest.

The Audubon Societies of our country are protesting against the wholesale slaughter of the crow, claiming that while it destroys some corn when it first sprouts, the crow is engaged all the year round destroying insect pests that are harmful to the farmer.

Governor Baxter of Maine is out in a vigorous protest against boosting the powder business by this method. He said this shooting contest will result in destroying most of the birds beside crows that are not protected by law.

Prominent naturalists all agree that the crow is one of the farmers' friends and should be entitled to the protection of law. They say that any extensive interference with the balance of natural life as nature has adjusted it is likely to have serious consequences.

Investigation has proved that where one species of wild life, particularly a bird like the crow which destroys insects, is driven away or killed in large numbers, the insects on which it lives are likely to become pests.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican

Friday, May 7, 1909

Dayton is preparing for the event of her life next month when the world famous aeroplanists, the Wright brothers, will return from their trip abroad and Rush county is to share in the glory of the occasion. As boys, the Wright brothers often visited here and their father, Bishop Milton Wright, was here recently, the guest of relatives and friends. Mrs. Cora Dillon of North Main street and Miss Grace Frazier of Center township cousins of the Wright brothers, have received an invitation from Bishop Wright, urging that he come to Dayton on the occasion of the great demonstration for his sons.

J. B. Schriebe, the veteran monument dealer of Rushville, was in Carthage Thursday looking after business, and gave the Citizen office a call, says the Carthage Citizen. Mr. Schriebe came from Germany to the United States when a young man eighteen years old. He worked for fifty cents a day for three years and his brother, who was earning $1.25 per day, often asked him for a loan.

A colt with five feet was born on the farm of Vern Lewis, a short distance south of New Salem, last night. The extra foot protrudes just above the lower joint on the right front leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. Macy and Mrs. Jennie Hester were visiting Jasper Hester and family Sunday.

The Milroy high school Alumni held its first annual banquet at the school auditorium Wednesday night. The meeting was a complete success. Ninety-three were present and of this number fifty became members of the society. Toasts followed the banquet; the following responded: toastmaster, Dr. Hume, J. L. Shauke, Arrie Taylor, Bass Wilson, Pearl Booth, Catherine Barton and Claude R. Crane.

Mrs. Ben L. Smith has returned from an extended visit with her daughter Mrs. Emma Slaughter in Chicago.

Miss Ella and Francis Dean of Franklin are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Dean in North Harrisburg street.

Levi Hilligoss, a well preserved man of almost ninety years, is here this week visiting among his large relationship. He has just returned from Colorado where he spent five winter. His home is in Boone county.

Mrs. Hillary Haydon of North Main street is recovering from an attack of tonsillitis.

The Daily Republican made an experiment oiling the street around the building today to lay the dust. Two barrels of crude oil were used.

Harry Boyd delightfully entertained a number of his friends last night in his suite of rooms over the bowling alley with a three course supper.

Mrs. Leonard Clark went to Connersville today to be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Porter and to attend the May festival.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Democrats already are crowing over "the Presidential Victory of 1924."

In partisan Democratic circles, the battle is all over—so far as results are concerned—except the detail of counting the ballots.

So cocky are the party's "leaders" over the "certainty" of success that new stationery just ordered for use at Democratic headquarters bears no printed return card, no address—just the picture, in blood-red ink, of a crowing rooster, neck arched, wings flapping, proclaiming victory.

This, when not only the presidential and vice presidential candidates are wholly matters of speculation, but even the temporary chairman for the convention has not been decided on.

Garrett, although only 43, is one of the seniors of Congress, in point of service. This session he completes 20 years in the lower house; during which time he has proven one of the steadiest, most consistent workers on the Democratic side. As one of the four Democratic members of the rules committee, he is one of his party's legislative strategists.

A slender, sallow Southerner, he is actually rivaling Nick Longworth, Republican leader in the House, in point of baldness, but hiding the barren expanse of his cranial dome with a thin thatch of long hair from one side, carefully combed upward and across the top.

A good speaker, of the fiery, dramatic type, Garrett doubtless could get the Democratic delegates away to a spectacular, hip-hip-hooray shout. How they would finish, well, that would be the lookout of the permanent chairman.

But if they want him to finish

the job, he could do that, too. For that's his name—Finis!

HAD he not committed himself definitely to the McAdoo candidacy, Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, probably would have been picked to call the convention to order.

Pat is his party's prize elephant baiter, and it is the G. O. P. elephant that must be trapped if the Democratic donkey is to have the range of the White House grounds these next four years.

Pat's spears of satire and ridicule pierce more deeply through the thick hide of Old Guard Republicanism than all the harpoons of abuse that are hurled by his henchmen. A few phrases by him, a pointed question or two, often is sufficient to start an angry trumpeting by Senate Republicans that will last through a whole afternoon.

WHETHER as officials of the convention or just as delegates, Democratic United States senators will be on the job at New York to a man. And they're all pepped up at the prospect.

From Robinson, of Arkansas, party leader in the Senate, to Ferris of Michigan and Fletcher of Florida, who are seldom heard from except on roll-calls, they're looking forward to the convention and the campaign with an optimism and faith in the ultimate outcome that defies all rules of rhyme or reason.

They are even convinced that out of the bloody battle, which all agree must be waged at New York before a leader for the campaign is chosen, the party will emerge in "perfect harmony," without animosities, with no groups nursing a grudge over black eyes and bruises, with a united spirit and will to win that will be invincible!

Convention hostilities, in fact, are counted on to deepen campaign unity.

Which should prove that as optimists, Democrats lead the world!

U. S. To Win Olympic

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, May 7.—Form shown in the early dual meets on the Pacific Coast and in the Pennsylvania and Drake relay carnivals ought to serve as a stimulant to those who have been having bad heart action when they think of the fate awaiting the American team at the Paris Olympics this summer.

The American team won the last Olympic track and field games in Antwerp by winning nine events and by scoring numerous points as places in the other events.

Although it is too early to make any accurate forecasts it is safe to assume that the American team will repeat its victory in seven of the nine events that were turned in at Antwerp and that it has a splendid chance to win nine of the events which were lost.

Among the events that were won by the Americans at the last Olympics were the pole vault and the 56 pound weight event. It is quite possible and, in fact very probable that the Americans will lose the pole vault this year and the 56-pound weight event has been removed from the program.

Of the events that were lost in Antwerp, the Americans are almost sure to win the broad jump, the hop-step-jump, the shot-put, the discus throw, the 110-meter hurdles, the 1,600-meter relay race and the marathon. The chances for winning the 400-meter, 800-meter or 1,500-meter races are very bright.

Many of the experts are feeling pessimistic because they reason that the European athletes will have been so greatly improved since they competed against the Americans in Antwerp. This should be granted because the European nations are getting better coaching and their manpower of the nations that engaged in the Great War should have been improved just as much in the four years as the European rivals.

It is a known fact that the United States will have much better representation in the weight events than they had at Antwerp. It will be a surprise if "Tiny" Hartranft doesn't break the world's record in the shot-put event at Paris. The California youngster already has broken the record in unofficial attempts on the Pacific Coast.

Hartranft also has beaten the Olympic discus mark of 1920 by over nine feet, and he ought to make a new record in this event. There is very little danger that Walter Christie, head field coach of the American team will allow Hartranft or young Clarence Houser to over-indulge before they go to Paris.

Clarence Tootell, the giant former Bowdoin star, has also broken the world's record for the hammer throw in trials and he ought to make a new record at Paris when he has so much to encourage him to do his very best.

In the broad jump the American team will be represented by Ned Gourdin, former Harvard star and the holder of the world's record made since 1920. Delart Hubbard, the colored star from the University of Michigan, is also close to a new record-maker in the broad jump and in the hop step and jump.

Earl Thompson, competing for Canada, won the 110-meter hurdles at Antwerp and broke the record, but he is not eligible for amateur competition now and the American hurdlers are now the best in the world.

American sprinters and high jumpers are still supreme and they are certain to win if they can hold their form. The American quarter-milers and half-milers are more formidable this year than they were in 1920 and the milers are also more promising than they were in Geisnuu.

With Clarence De Mar, the Boston pointer, leading the marathoners, the chances for an American victory, in the classic of the games are better than they ever were in the past.

KEEPING ONE EYE
ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero—Zach Wheat. The veteran Brooklyn outfielder hit a homer in the eighth inning with two on and beat the Braves 3 to 9.

Babe Ruth knocked in two runs with a double and scored another after a pass, furnishing all the runs that gave the Yanks a 3 to 2 victory over the Athletics. Eight straight losses for the A's.

Heilmann's homer with one or and his sacrifice fly scored three runs and helped the Tigers beat the White Sox 6 to 4.

Ray Kromer, rookie pitcher from the Pacific Coast held the Cubs to two hits and the Pirates won 2 to 0. Cuyler, rookie outfielder, hit a single and triple for the Pirates.

Two homers by Cy Williams and one by Ford gave the Phils another victory over the Giants, 5 to 4.

Bunching hits off two pitchers, the Browns beat the Indians 7 to 4. Sisker stole home in the first inning.

Behind the good pitching of Fahr, a rookie, the Red Sox beat the Senators 14 to 4. It was the sixth straight victory for Boston, the longest the club has had since 1919.

High School Boys Spend Hectic
Hour Running Official Business

turning from the false alarm, Walter Easley, who was piloting the pumper, was pinched by the youngster police department for speeding. However, he was released.

Constable Frank Comella directed traffic at Third and Main and on barely escaping being run over by Franklin Miller and Wilbur Wolters, he enacted his first duty as policeman. Miller and Wolters were arrested for speeding and were taken before Mayor Conover for trial. The latter imposed a two hour term in jail on them.

They were locked up by deputy Easley and Collyer, the photographer wishing a picture of the notable prisoners, hastened to the jail to take it. The presence of confiscated whisky near the cell compelled a change of apartments for them.

Judge Wyatt of the Circuit court imposed a sentence of six months in the penal farm and a $100 fine on Chock Taylor, who was waiting in jail for sentence. Sheriff Caldwell accompanied the prisoner to the court room.

Elwin Readle as County Treasurer found that his experience of handling Webster's Dictionary came in handy in looking up tax reports.

Agricultural Agent, Robert Marshall, gave the day's market reports over the telephone and instructed several farmers as to daily problems of their business. He worked like a veteran at the job.

Robert Newbold learned the immensity of the duties of City Treasurer and spent much of his time pointing over the books like he had never before done.

Recorder Loren Winkler was in office at a slack time. However, he learned much by closely watching the books. Plats of every small settlement in Rush county were displayed before him.

Probably the greatest amount of business was carried on at the high school where Arthur Wilson and Douglas Morris held sway. Their sixty minute reign saw many things done in favor of the students, which was naturally expected.

Probably the most pronounced was the issuing of a proclamation announcing the emancipation of the entire school after two p. m. Friday. How much power they really had in the pinch remains to be seen when Friday arrives.

Superintendent Morris spent most of his time inspecting the school while principal Wilson had a host of duties to perform. Wilson expelled several girls from class and punished Fritz Roth and Churchill Allen severely with his powerful voice. He exercised his power with the rod of learning also on one boy.

Outside of the false fire alarm, Sheriff Caldwell was summoned to quell a false riot but he either arrived too late or there was no disturbance at all for when he got there everything was quite and peaceful.

Chief of Police Sherman arrested several violators of the law, one being Albert Cotton, who had parked his car on the wrong side of the street. Cotton, being a school teacher was released, though, by Sherman for fear of the consequences.

County Superintendent of the schools, John Kendall spent his time inspecting the books and still detests the work or anything connected with the school.

Outside of a few unusual disturbances, the city was run excellently by the boys and a maximum of arrests accounted for the fact the same persons tried to take advantage of the occasion. But they were greatly fooled.

At ten o'clock the veterans resumed their positions and business again entered its usual grind after an hour's layoff.

improvement of North Sexton street above Ninth street, for curb, gutter and sidewalk, and the council will accordingly receive bids on this improvement on June 3.

A contract was entered into last night with the A. G. Nutting Company of Cincinnati, O., Chemical engineers, who will supervise the laying of the asphalt paving in Morgan street, and make the necessary chemical tests as it is being laid, in order to give the city a good street, and a high test grade of material.

The council also approved the appointment of Frank Havens, as city sanitary inspector, and the mayor announced that the officer had been given full police powers.

A petition was presented by Wade Sherman, calling attention to the city that the south end of Perkins street is blocked by piles of debris placed there by the contractors who wrecked the Odd Fellows building after the fire. Mr. Sherman owns a building that was occupied by the armory, and his petition served notice on the city to clear the street or he would institute civil proceedings in court.

Several young people interested in tennis, appeared before the council and requested that the council or park board assist in the upkeep of the courts at the park this summer. The action was referred to the park board for a report, and the councilmen expressed themselves as being in favor of building and keeping three or four courts in condition this summer, and that the park custodian, who is now at work, could devote a portion of his time to the courts.

The city clerk was instructed to notify the firm that installed the four pedestal traffic posts at the downtown street intersections that the city expected to assume charge of them. The contract was entered into with the firm several years ago, and was to be forfeited at any time if the firm failed to obey all provisions, and in recent months the posts have been neglected.

The councilmen are considering a plan of removing these posts to the entrances of the park, and at the downtown streets install small wicker lighted posts of plate glass and which are easily observed by motorists, and permits more room in making a turn.

The councilmen also appointed Harry Ferather as inspector in the Morgan street paving job, which will soon be ready of the laying of the concrete foundation, that underlies the asphalt.

There was considerable business that had to be carried over, and the session adjourned to meet again Thursday night to complete the session.

FOR PUBLIC INTOXICATION

Joe Russell was arrested this morning in front of the police station by Police Chief Blackburn on a charge of public intoxication. He was placed in jail and will be given a hearing in police court.

HANDKERCHIEF HAS IMPORTANT ROLE IN THE FASHION WORLD

By HEDDA HOYT

(Written for United Press)

New York, May 7.—Consider the lowly little "handkerchief." Always chic and always swanky—Tucked in a vest or worn on the wrist; Any place for fashion's gist. Wrapped 'round the throat, or worn on a garter. Poor little hank! It sure is a martyr!

The handkerchief plays an important role in the fashion world today. It forms Milady's hatband, acts as a scarf, becomes a charming appendage on her wristlet, conceals her powderpuff, forms the bow of her garter, and does numerous other fashion stunts.

One has only to glance at the accessory departments of the shops to get the full significance of the "kerchief's" power. Counters are laden with handkerchiefs of every color, every size and every price. Some of these sell as high as $15 each. The average wisp of chiffon or fine linen sells from 75 cents to $2. And each gown must have a handkerchief of its own! So the yearly handkerchief bill assumes enormous proportions, if Milady follows the mode.

One of the newest "hanky holders"—if one may call them that—is a finger ring with a silver loop attachment which holds the colorful chiffon handkerchief. There are worn on the little finger. Wristlets of velvet or beaded bands are fashioned in similar manner as a means for displaying the dainty handkerchief. Old ivory budhas suspended on necklaces are made so that they will open and close, being veritable hanky concealers.

POWDER PUFF BAGS

Then there are the powder-puff bags made of lovely silk handkerchiefs. These make adorable gifts and can be easily made. A circle is drawn on the center of the handkerchief sufficiently large to hold a powder-puff. A bias strip of silk is sewed about the circle through which is run a narrow ribbon. This forms a little bag, with four corners of the handkerchief making a ruffle. These are very lovely for evening wear. Fine ecru lace trims many of the more elaborate handkerchiefs this Spring, forming the border for the pastel-hued chiffon or georgette square, the lace in some cases being so wide that it forms almost the entire handkerchief. Fine linen squares of bright shades are still popular and these are embroidered in self-color or trimmed with lace edges this season. The drawn-thread effect and colorful embroidered patterns are not quite as popular as formerly.

GARTER HANDKERCHIEFS

These are also lovely gifts for the bride or the young miss. Silk ribbon garters of pastel shades are made, with loops at the sides, through which are run tiny silk handkerchiefs of chiffon or crepe de chene. Though the garters are of the same shade, the handkerchiefs adorning them are of contrasting colors.

On mentioning the oddity of the garter kerchief, the clerk explained that these were particularly popular with the "dancing debbies", who were forever losing their handkerchiefs and wanted to carry extra ones to replace lost ones. At any rate, the tiny lace-edged squares make adorable garter bows.

FASHIONS IN LIP-STICKS

Women don't retire these days to bedden their lips. They carry their lipstick right with them where they can have them always handy. Many lipstick containers are shown this season which in themselves are work of art. There are tiny doll-shaped cases made to contain lip-sticks, hand-painted pendants for necklaces, which conceal the lip-stick; lipstick tassels for trimming one's frock, lip-stick umbrella handles, and what-not. The Mandarin tassel is one of the most effective ways of concealing the lip-stick. These adorn some of the imported frocks, handbags and fans. They are colorful, tubular cases, from which are suspended silken tassels. Sometimes the lip-stick case is concealed beneath the tassel itself.

BRACELET MIRRORS

Little ribbon wristlets with medalion-shaped mirrors are among the latest novelties. The mirrors are about the size of the average wrist-watch and are sometimes outlined in brilliants.

for governor, in case no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast and the nomination goes to the convention.

The anti-Jackson forces elected five delegates in Rushville township, making a clean sweep, and one in Ripley township, and Jackson supporters elected the remainder of the Rush county delegation to the convention.

The five-winning in Rushville township, and the vote they received, are as follows: Sarah J. Mull, 1004; Russell B. Tittsworth, 1237; Ann Elizabeth Amos 1098; Clara L. Bebout 1224; William L. King 1220.

The defeated candidates in this township and their vote follows: Clarence Sampson, 418; Josie Webb, 503; Alta M. Posey, 394; John F. Boyd 538; Eli Kinney, 620; Virgil Maffett, 662.

The other anti-Jackson delegate elected was Lilburn M. White of Ripley township. He received 223 votes compared with 109 cast for Jasper A. Nigh and 64 for Morris L. Henley.

Harry Spaulding defeated Loyd A. Wagoner in Orange township, 127 to 60 and L. B. Weaver was elected delegate from Anderson township 202 to 123, over Charley F. Davis.

Court Oldham was chosen as delegate from Center and Jackson townships, defeating Harvey M. Newhouse 185 to 144.

Union and Washington townships elected Charles G. Maunz as their delegate. He won over Charles H. Elwell, 253 to 138.

Walter Norris made a hard fight against Harold Matney for delegate from Noble and Richland, but was defeated 169 to 160.

Douglas Morris, Samuel L. Trabue and John O. Hill were elected delegates to the democratic state convention from Rushville township. The first two are said to be McCulloch men and the third a Cravens man. The vote in this township was as follows: Morris and Hill, 236; Trabue 234; Lawrence L. Allen 164; Carrie C. Brown 210; Henry V. Logan 120; John D. Megee 192; Nina M. Robertson 60; Morris M. Winship 205.

The only other contest was in Orange township where John A. D. Wagoner defeated George M. Hardesty 166 to 73. The remainder of the delegation, elected without contest, is as follows: Ripley, Roy Herkless; Anderson, William D. Martin; Center and Jackson, Walter Bitner; Washington and Union, William B. Whiton; Noble and Richland, Oliver J. Cook.

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"A Blessing to Suffering Women," Writes One

Louisville, Illinois.—"I certainly thank you for the great benefit I have received from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I first learned about it from my step-mother who got so much help from it. Several years ago I took it for inward weakness and since then I have taken it during the Change of Life and it has been a great help to me. It certainly is a blessing to suffering women and I take pleasure in recommending it. My health has been better this summer than it has been for five years. I am now able to do all my work and have canned 340 quarts of fruit and vegetables this summer."—Mrs. KATE McPEAK, Louisville, Illinois.

Wants Letter Used As Proof
Frankford, Pennsylvania.—"I am sure if women who suffer through the Change of Life as I have, with hot flashes, nervousness and other weaknesses, would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial they would be benefited as I was. My nerves were so bad that every little noise made me jump, but now I am not bothered that way at all. My husband says he really hated to look at me I looked so miserable. I hope you will use this letter as proof of the help the Vegetable Compound is giving me."—Mrs. ABBIE HARVEY, 5701 Leonard St., Frankford, Pa.

Carlisle, Illinois.—"During the Change of Life I suffered with severe nervousness and with disturbances of the entire system. These continued probably two years before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I could do none of my work and was not always able to be up. For ten days at a time I was forced to remain in bed with my hips propped higher than my head and the pains were terrible. The doctor helped some but each time I was forced to go over the same suffering. I had taken the Vegetable Compound in 1910 after my twins were born and it had helped me so I decided to try it again. I became better and gained in strength. I have taken it for about three years now but not steadily. I am able to do my housework but I avoid all heavy lifting and washing and ironing as I know I am not strong enough yet. I give the Vegetable Compound to my daughters and recommend it to my friends."—Mrs. LOUISA B. BRAND, 450 Fairfax Street, Carlyle, Illinois.

In a recent country-wide canvass of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, over 100,000 replies were received and 98 out of every 100 reported they had been benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

CONFINED TO BED

Birmingham Lady Took Cardui for Relief of Change of Life Troubles and Says It Helped Her "So Much."

Birmingham, Ala.—"I first took Cardui for that tired, worn-out feeling that comes from being dreadfully run-down," says Mrs. Catherine E. Smith, of 2106 Stout Street. "Twenty-five years ago, I was suffering from womanly weakness.

I read of Cardui in an almanac, and thought I would try it. I got a bottle and it helped me from the first. After that, during the whole of my married life, I took Cardui when I needed it.

"About four years ago, change of life came on me. . . I grew weaker and weaker, and was confined to my bed, where I lay on my back for days. I was told that only a severe operation could do me any good, and this depressed me very much, for I dreaded such an ordeal.

"I remembered how Cardui had helped me for female trouble in the past and I had read of how it had helped other women during change of life, so one night I told my husband to go to the drug store and get me a bottle. I began taking it at once. From the first dose I could feel myself getting stronger. . . I continued to take Cardui until I was entirely through this very trying period of a woman's life."
